Dear Sir,
Assalamu Alaikum Waharhamatullah!

Hope this letter reaches you well.

To commemorate the outstanding services of Hazrat Shah Waliullah to promote the Islamic values, the IOS has instituted an Award known as "Shah Waliullah Award" to honour eminent scholars who have done outstanding work in Social Sciences, Humanities, Law and Islamics. The Award is in the form of a cash of one lakh rupees and a scroll of honour containing citation which is given annually to the best scholar/professional.

The scheme is administered by an independent Board which nominates a Selection Committee consisting of eminent scholars and ulama to identify the scholar to be honoured. The subject or the field of the Award is decided by the Board for each year.

The 12th award would be on the topic "Media, Society and Indian Muslims", which will be given to a journalist/media personality or media house/newspaper/magazine that have sought to serve the Muslim community in all possible ways.

You are requested to make suitable nominations for the 12th Shah Waliullah Award.

The last date for receipt of nominations is 30th June, 2016.

The nomination should be made in the enclosed form (Annexure-I) giving as much information as possible about the journalist/media house and his/her/their work.

Further, the IOS invites the young scholars and researchers (below 45 years of age) to submit the Essay on the topic under Essay Writing Competition (Junior Category). The best Essay, as decided by the Panel of judges, is awarded Rs. 25,000/-. The award and the award money may be shared if there is a tie between two or more winners.

The topic of the Essay would be "Media, Society and Indian Muslims".

The last date for submission of essay on the above topic is 30th July, 2016.

The Brochure containing the rules governing the Award as well as Essay Writing Competition and note on the themes of the award and essay together with a brief introduction of the Institute of Objective Studies is enclosed for your information.

With due regards,
Yours sincerely

(Dr. M. Manzoor Alam)
Chairman
